

CHATEAU FOURCAS HOSTEN

Vintage 2010

Finesse & fruit

The sunny summer and the exceptional late fall played a large part in this successful vintage. The climate was fully favorable for an optimal maturity of the grapes and excellent sanitary conditions. We harvested serenely, waiting for the best dates for each grape variety and so optimizing the maturity of the grapes.

2010 is to remain one of the historical vintages of the estate, especially with the arrival of Caroline Artaud as winemaker, and the first use of brand new production facilities.
